

Appendix D Locally listed Trees

Type of tree and position	Grid ref	Reason for significance
Pollarded Limes at Bures School	TL 9090 6 33918	Sense of permanence as these trees have been there for so long. Grandparents picking up from school saw them when at school themselves

Type of tree and position	Grid ref	Reason for significance
Maple at the entrance to Bures Community Centre	TL 9088 3 33900	Place where parents have sat and waited for children from school since 1960
Millennium Oaks alongside the path across the recreation ground	TL 9081 9 33889	Planted by the children of the village to mark the Millennium. Plaque recording this is on an oak plinth on the rec.
Black Poplar on the rec near Bures Cricket Pavilion	TL 9070 4 33759	Planted in 2000 next to a memorial bench
Oak in the hedge line at the recreation ground.	TL 9083 7 33763	A favourite for children climbing trees for 50 years.
Type of tree and position	Grid ref	Reason for significance

Type of tree and position	Grid ref	Reason for significance
Copper Beech on the corner of Nayland Road and Church Square	TL 9078 1 34035	TPO Significant tree for children as a 'wait by the tree' spot
Sweet Chestnut in garden of Old Vicarage	TL 9073 1 33904	Magnificent large specimen remembered by many from childhood when attending Sunday School in the Post Room
Norway Maple in churchyard	TL 9068 7 34048	Beautiful memorial tree much admired
Beech in churchyard	TL 9070 7 33996	Significant tree in the churchyard

Type of tree and position	Grid ref	Reason for significance
Pollarded Lime Trees in the churchyard along Wharf Lane	TL 9066 2 34002	See 1. A
Chestnut at Ferriers Barn	TL 8967 9 33800	A favourite tree for residents and members at Ferriers Barn. A good conker tree for children.
Type of tree and position	Grid ref	Reason for significance
Isolated Oak off PROW from Arger Fen to Bures	TL 9237 9 34965	A favourite tree for residents

Type of tree and position	Grid ref	Reason for significance
Cedar at top of the Cemetery Drive	TL 9099 9 34355	Strong associations with visits to the cemetery. Ancient trees – Cedar approx. 175 yrs old recently reduced for safety reasons. Previously alongside a Redwood which was also reduced due to risk of falling.
Alders in Wharf House garden	TL 9062 3 33959	Significant to the river scene

Type of tree and position	Grid ref	Reason for significance
Oak on Cuckoo Hill	TL 9131 3 34472	Oak noted for its stunning branch structure and as the home to a barn owl.
Beech in Secretaries garden	TL 9049 9 34026	Beautiful tree seen and admired daily by many residents
Ginkgo on Bures Common	TL 9053 0 34003	Much loved ancient species of tree. Also home to Virginia creeper previously on a house demolished in the 1950s. Provider of shade on Bures Common

Type of tree and position	Grid ref	Reason for significance
Oak on Bures Common	TL 9056 0 34012	Planted to commemorate the Golden Jubilee of Queen Elizabeth II in 2012. Time capsule included by children from Bures School
Elm on Bures Common	TL 9057 3 34015	Planted 2021 as an Elm of Hope to mark moving on from the COID 19 pandemic
Ash on Essex Knowle	TL 9054 2 34002	Significant tree in the street scene

Type of tree and position	Grid ref	Reason for significance
Oak in garden of former Swan pub	TL 9046 8 33985	Oak threatened with removal when the pub was converted to housing. Residents objected to the application.	 A photograph of a large, mature oak tree with dense green foliage, situated in a garden. The tree is the central focus, with a clear blue sky in the background. In the foreground, there is a grassy area and a wooden fence or path. The overall scene is bright and sunny.